

VALCALIENTE GARNACHA

Description:

Organic Red Wine, D.O.C. Rioja

Made from 100% Garnacha grapes, monovarietal

Alcohol content 14 % vol.

100% organic production. Own vineyards, certificate of organic production comprising both growing and vinification procedures.

Malolactic fermentation in new French barriques, where it remained for a total of 3 months.

Appearance:

The wine displays a deep cherry red with a good density, shows violet hues and a purple rim. Clean and bright to the eye. Swirling agitation yields thick glyceric legs.

Nose:

Clean aroma displaying initial sweet notes of red fruit perfectly blended in with the oak. Reminiscent of autumnal forests, the falling of the leaves, peelings of roasted chestnut with an overall elegant smoky touch, clove, pepper.. Complex nose.

Palate:

Greedy and silky entrance.

It is balanced and elegant wine.

Pairing:

This wine goes well with fish, red and white meat, semi-hard cheeses and goat cheeses.

Can also be served on its own or in good company. A powerful wine that will not fail to impress.
